

SINGULAR AND PLURAL
POSSESSIVE NOUNS
MRS. FAUST

WHAT IS A POSSESSIVE NOUN?

Possessive nouns are used to show possession (owning, or having).

SOME NOUNS SHOW WHO OR WHAT OWNS SOMETHING.

Luke's toy

mom's purse

dad's tool

chair's cushion

THIS KIND OF NOUN IS CALLED A POSSESSIVE NOUN.

My sister's friend is coming over.

The dog's bed is warm.

Sam's ball went over the fence.

THESE ARE ALL SINGULAR POSSESSIVE NOUNS

Singular noun
(meaning one noun)

Has possession of something

A singular possessive noun is created

PLURAL POSSESSIVE NOUNS

Most plural nouns show possession by adding just an apostrophe.

The girls' ipads all had dead batteries.

THESE NOUNS STARTS OUT SINGULAR, THEN SHOW OWNERSHIP OF SOMETHING...

Singular

room

frog

dad

Kent

store

Singular Possessive

room's _____

frog's _____

dad's _____

Kent's _____

store's _____

